Seek The Old Paths

God told the Jewish people these words when they had wandered from Him:

Jeremiah 6:16-Thus says the LORD: "Stand in the ways and see, And ask for the old paths, where the good way is, And walk in it; Then you will find rest for your souls. But they said, 'We will not walk in it.'

There were many people in that time who were clamoring for some new religion, or some new revelation from God. He told the people that they didn't need something new: they needed to return to the Word He had already given.

We live in a time of Great Apostasy (2 Thessalonians 2:3-10; 1 Timothy 4:1-5). What we need today is what was needed then: to continue seeking the old oaths. Following the Bible is where the good way is, and we will find rest for our souls when we heed it's teachings. The question before us is the same that was before them: will we obey God by following His Word, or will we go our own rebellious way?
